They trust us for a reason

Virzhiniya Georgieva
Marketing Manager, Konica Minolta

The professionalism and personalized service that we got from 356labs was unlike any other company we worked with and they made us feel so comfortable by their natural communication and let’s do it attitude. Incredibly trustworthy and high value! Thank you!

Hristo Nikolov
Training Manager, Société Générale

The PowerPoint Tips & Tricks training 356labs delivered for us, allowed us to achieve a lot more when using the software. Now we are way better equipped to create professional presentations and our internal clients are already seeing it and the feedback from them is great!

Boris Borisov
Customer Care Director, Renault

I saw 356labs presenting during PowerPoint vs. Sway event. After it I had no doubts that this will be the company, who will help us to build the presentation for our next Network Convention. The result was brilliant! Simple, clear, stylish slides with lovable icons created for our purposes.
Why 356labs

No, we are not a typical company. Let us explain. We focus solely on presentations. Yes, that may be an unusual way to run a business, but it allows for unmatched focus and expertise.

Focusing only on presentations means we specialize in every aspect of them. All the effort and insight that helps you achieve your goals comes from real-world international experience. Our work is recognized at the highest levels possible across the globe.

The journey you take with our team is nothing but remarkable. We just care. We are more than just an agency you hire. We are simply your friends.

Focus  Experience  Care
Meet the team

These are the people who make it happen. Everything we do, all the projects we complete, all the success we achieve is delivered by the people you see here.

We start with the word “care” first and that dictates all our actions regardless of the task, whether it will be the communication between us and you as a client, a draft of a presentation we send, the final version of it, or maybe a training. We can’t repeat it enough – everything in our company starts with caring. We know it makes a huge difference and that’s why you should expect our team to be “wired” this way.

Online Academy

Want to train your teams without disrupting your day-to-day operations? That’s where our online courses come into play. As of now you can enroll your people to learn how to plan and prepare for an effective talk as well as how to use PowerPoint so that they build better presentations faster. And stay tuned, more topics are coming soon!

Our online academy does not require your teams to leave the office, take vacation, travel or worry about anything. They can access the content 24/7 from any device they are on. We also offer to get all course materials and upload them in your own intranet/LMS or even record a custom-build training for you.

Presentation Consulting

Looking for experts to work with you on a presentation-related topic? We offer 1:1 consulting meetings that we can set up in a convenient way for you and that are completely private and if needed - under NDA. What can you use those meetings for? Here’s a few ideas:

- Building the story of your talk
- Rehearsals and feedback
- Suggestions on past delivery
- Slide review and design
- PowerPoint template review
- Building complex charts
- Conference speaking
- Sales offer review
- Software or hardware
- Personal Development plan

Is one of these exactly what you are looking for?

Presentation Template

Building presentations often? Can they all look consistent, well-designed and yet take almost zero effort to build? The answer is “Yes”, but you need a proper presentation template. We will analyze all your presentations, then design a template, as well as train you how to use it. Here is what the end product will consist of:

- Slide layouts based on your needs
- Example slides with instructions
- Dos and don’ts instructions
- Predefined color palette
- Predefined typography
- Icon library
- Photo library
- Instructional videos
- Instructional trainings
- Updates based on usage

Katina Peycheva
Director, United Bulgarian Bank

We worked with 356labs on a very important presentation for us. What made this one special was the fact that we asked them to come up with one file to serve many needs. 356labs did the impossible but at the end came up with exactly what we were looking for and the results are already in place!

Elena Stoichkova
HR Manager, PHOENIX Pharma

The training in presentation skills we had was great, exciting and very different experience from the trainings we usually have because 356labs designed it to meet our specific needs. They showed us “Presentations” from a very different perspective and the skills we learned are invaluable.

Madina Demirbas
International TEDx Speaker

I was part of a webinar the team of 356labs delivered and I knew right away that these were the people I want to consult with. Back then I was preparing for my TEDx AUBG speech and even though I rewrote it multiple times, it took them just one meeting to help me polish the words and come up with unique interactive moments, which later on turned out to be the peaks of my talk!
Let’s work together!
